COURSE DESCRIPTION:
This course will provide a semester long field experience for candidates seeking certification as teachers of students with moderate and severe disabilities. It is taken in conjunction with a course on assessment of students with MSD (EDSP 370) and is designed to serve three ends. First, students with moderate and severe disabilities constitute a diverse but low incidence group. As a result, many teachers in training have little knowledge of or experience with the range of students they may be called on to teach. This experience provides them with an opportunity to gain a first hand understanding of the range of students who fall under the umbrella of moderate and severe disability. Second, this course is intended to provide the candidate with exposure to the range of school programs for these students. Finally, this experience provides the candidate with an opportunity to develop skills applying the strategies for assessment being taught in the co-requisite course.

FIELD EXPERIENCE HOURS: 30 hours, Level III

Candidates in this class will meet as a group twice at the beginning of the semester. All other meetings will be individually arranged between the instructor and individual candidates.

During the semester candidates in this field experience will spend a total of 30 hours in two different educational programs serving students with moderate and severe disabilities. They will spend 10 hours in one of the below settings and 20 hours in another setting below:

1) A pre-school
2) Elementary School
2) A Middle School
3) A High School

Each program MUST serve individuals with moderate and severe disabilities. Each candidate will, under the direction of the cooperating teacher, be actively involved in each setting.
The 30 hours of field experience is to be completed in direct interaction with students. Consultation with cooperating teachers, observation of meetings, planning sessions, and other activities, while necessary, cannot be counted as part of the required time. This experience needs to be carefully planned and distributed across the entire semester. This experience must take place in programs for people with moderate and/or severe disabilities.

Conceptual Framework: “Community Engagement: A Light to and from the Mountains”
The Professional Education Unit at Morehead State University delivers rigorous, high quality programs that prepare professionals informed by best national and international scholarship, plus research, literature, and experiences specific to Appalachia- preparing professionals to improve the schools, quality of life, and the communities in which they live and serve. This statement is not only the strategic mission for the College, but it also incorporates the conceptual framework that guides all our activities.

Conceptual Framework Outcomes (CFOs):
The Unit and the faculty within individual programs assess the degree to which its graduates:

1) Master the content knowledge, professional and the twenty – first century skills need to make an optimal contribution to “whole” student learning in education settings.

2) Are competent in the collection and use of data to inform decision – making and to demonstrate accountability for student learning.

3) Demonstrate professional dispositions

4) Are culturally competent and understand the regions from which they have come utilizing knowledge and experiences to effectively “bridge the gaps” (economic, achievement, and geographic) ensuring optimal learning for all students.

5) Engage in authentic field experiences in collaboration with committed school – based partners and are empowered to improve the quality of education throughout this region and beyond.

Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs): By the end of this course, the candidate will be able to:

1. Design effective instructional programs based on both formal and informal assessments for school, home, and community settings.

2. Use, develop, and adapt instructional materials.

3. Develop and implement thematic activity-based approaches to instruction.

4. Use appropriate measurement (assessments) strategies including direct observation; interviews; direct testing with norm-, criterion-, and curriculum-referenced tests; and measures that assist in developing IEP's and subsequent instructional programs with performance-based, functional and activity-based programming.

5. Write summaries of assessment results and activities and develop these results in appropriate educational programs and activities.

6. Plan and implement assessments activities for the purpose of screening, diagnosis and placement, instructional program planning, measuring student progress and program evaluation.

7. Involve families in assessment activities in a manner respectful of their culture.
8. Write appropriate and functionally based IEP's including yearly and short-term objectives based on assessment data with various team members.

9. Conduct assessments of the environment, including the use of ecological inventories and curriculum catalogs to develop critical activities in four domains (i.e., domestic, community, recreational/leisure, and vocational).

10. Define and discuss various team models for assessment and instruction especially collaboration.

11. Define and discuss various professional disciplines likely to be on assessment and instructional teams.

12. Monitor and analyze behavior individually and/or with other professionals to plan appropriate interventions.

13. Collect ongoing intervention data and modify programs based on data.

14. Effectively use formal and informal instruments to gather family input and priorities for educational programming.

15. Identify critical family issues, events, and decisions from family's point of view (e.g., transitional stages, grief process).

16. Identify and discuss how to include families at all levels of the educational process (e.g., assessment, IEP development, programming, etc.).

17. Maintain confidential information in a professional manner.

EVALUATION AND GRADING

The grade in this course will be based on completion of the field experience and submission of the following products that will be based on and document the field experiences. Please submit grading rubric with paper.

All work will be evaluated based on the thoroughness with which the assignment is completed, the clarity with which the information is presented (verbally or in writing), and degree to which the framework presented in this course is used in completing the assignments.

The total mark for the course will be computed based on the percentages below:

TOTAL HOURS IN THIS SETTING: ____10____ Hours

Signature of Cooperating Teacher
Spring 2010

Dear Colleague:

The candidates in EDSP 371 Field Experience in Assessment of Students with Moderate and Severe Disabilities at Morehead State University are required to: 1) familiarize themselves with the range of programs serving individuals with moderate and severe disabilities, and 2) develop skills they needed to effectively assess the learning needs of students with moderate and severe disabilities.

To achieve this goal they are required to spend a total of 30 hours in three different programs serving individuals with moderate and severe disabilities. They will spend 10 hours in two of the following: 1) an early intervention, pre-school or primary program; 2) a middle school program; and 3) a high school.

A portion of the time (approximately 3 hours) in each setting should be spent in observation of all students and programming to gain a general understanding of the structure of the program. The balance of the time should be spent actively working with an individual student under your guidance. The focus of these efforts should be the systematic collection of information needed to evaluate the student’s learning needs. While the candidates in this course are in a teacher preparation program most of them a very early in their program and will need direction and suggestions in conducting these activities. Please share with them methods and materials you use to assess you students. It will also be helpful if they can observe others conducting an assessment or review reports generated as the result of a formal assessment. Please use them in a way that builds their base of experience but also meets your needs for resources in your program. In other words, if there is an activity that will assist you in preparing for an IEP or a student’s alternative portfolio, use them for these purposes. I have encouraged them to be flexible and accommodate their schedule to the needs of your programs. If there are any problems related to scheduling, cooperation, appropriate behavior, or any other concern, please call me immediately.

The candidates are required to generate a case study based on each of their placements. This will require them to ask some questions about some aspects of the program they may not be able to observe directly. Please accommodate their need for information within the obvious limits of confidentiality. The candidates have been instructed in the need for confidentiality and will observe confidentiality in all class discussions and reports.

I am personally very grateful to you for making your program available to my candidates. If I can be of any assistance to you and your students please contact me. Thank you for your cooperation in assisting the candidates to complete their assignment. If you need any further information please do not hesitate to call me at (606) 783-2830.

Sincerely,
