

Rubric for General Education (2021+)
SLO #7

Outcome: Students effectively examine aspects of human cultures, past or present, from a variety of perspectives.

| Criteria   | Exceeds Standard(3 points)  | Meets Standard(2 points)  | Approaches Standard(1 point)   | Does Not Meet Standard(0 points)  |
|--|---|---|--|---|
| Essential components of at least one society's worldview                               | Identifies the most essential components as well as other elements or features that shape the society's worldview                               | Identifies the essential components of a society's world view   | Identifies some components of a society's world view; identification partial and incomplete.   | Identifies no components of a society's world view  |
| Society's worldview influences its members' cultural practices or social institutions. | Accurately and comprehensively identifies ways in which a society's worldview influences its members' cultural practices or social institutions | Accurately identifies ways in which a society's worldview influences its members' cultural practices or social institutions | Identifies some ways in which a society's worldview influences its members' cultural practices or social institutions; identification incomplete or inaccurate | Identifies no ways in which a society's worldview influences its members' cultural practices or social institutions |
| Historical factors that shape the identified society's world view                      | Recognizes a range of factors including the most essential or dominant  | Recognizes the most essential or dominant factors   | Recognizes some historical factors; recognition is partial and incomplete  | Recognizes no historical factors  |
| A variety of perspectives in the study of human cultures                               | Recognizes two or more perspectives that are clearly defined or carefully applied   | Recognizes two or more perspectives   | Recognizes more than one perspective; recognition is partial and incomplete  | Recognizes one perspective or less  |

Final revision: 4/13/2020