DESCRIPTION (INCLUDE DEFINITIONS):

All undergraduate students will receive midterm grades.

Halfway through a semester, students will receive mid-term grades to let them know how they are progressing in classes. Students may review mid-term and final grades electronically through their student Web accounts on the MSU Web site.

Faculty will assign meaningful mid-term grades so that students and their advisors may assess the student's progress and probability for success. Students may access mid-term and final grades electronically through their student Web accounts.
