The Michael Minger Act Report for Calendar Year 2013

Activity Reported for Calendar Year 2012

Section 1: Campus Security Authority

List campus security authority personnel (definition at KRS 164.948(2)):

All Morehead State University Division of Student Life administrators meet the definition of Campus Security Authority Personnel. This includes, but is not limited to, the Vice President of Student Life, the Dean of Students, the Director of Student Housing, and all full-time employees of the Morehead State University Police Department.

Describe the extent and nature of enforcement authority of campus security authority personnel:

The Morehead State University Police Department is a public safety and security department organized in accordance with KRS 164.950- KRS 164.980. Police Officers are serving at the pleasure and appointed by the MSU Board of Regents. In accordance with KRS 164.955, Morehead State University police officers have general police powers. The police officers possess all of the Common Law and Statutory powers, privileges and immunities of Sheriffs.

Morehead State University police officers exercise police powers upon any real property owned or occupied by the institution, including streets passing through and adjacent thereto. The powers may be exercised in any court of the Commonwealth where Morehead State University owns or occupied property. In addition, MSU police officers have jurisdiction in Rowan County in accordance with an agreement signed by the Sheriff of Rowan County as provided for in KRS 164.955. Also, MSU police officers have jurisdiction to conduct to conduct investigations anywhere in the Commonwealth, provided such investigations related to criminal offenses which have occurred on property controlled by Morehead State University. Morehead State University police officer must successfully complete a sixteen-week basic police training course conducted or approved by the Kentucky Law Enforcement Council. In addition, each year a police officer must complete a forty-hour-in service course conducted or approved by the Kentucky Law Enforcement Council.

Describe the working relationship of campus security authority personnel with state and local police agencies:

Morehead State University has established the following policies and procedures to enhance the security of the campus community:

Persons remaining after the posted hours must have appropriate identification and authorization. Faculty and staff members are permitted within facilities 24 hours per day. Individual faculty/staff will be required to produce their Medeco key and a University ID card, when so requested by member of the MSU Police Department. Students must obtain the approval of the department chairperson and possess an approved "After Hour Facility Utilization Authorization Slip". Students must have their copy of the slip and a valid University ID card in their possession and present same upon request.

Residence halls permit entry through the main entrance requiring card access 24 hours a day. The University Police Department employs student workers as student cadets by randomly patrolling the campus during the hours of 7pm – 1am (8pm – 2pm during day light savings). Any one present in a residence hall may be asked to show an MSU ID card to prove residency and their right to use the facilities. Failure to produce proper identification upon request, MSU Police Department or any MSU employee may result in disciplinary action.

Section 2: Description of Information Programs

Describe programs that inform students and employees about:

(a) Campus Safety and Security:

The University Office of Student Life utilizes both on-campus and off-campus resources to make students aware of the dangers they may encounter throughout their college experience. The Morehead State University Police Department present regularly scheduled programs at orientations and in residence hall promoting crime prevention and security awareness. Topics include theft, rape, drugs and alcohol. Crime reporting is stressed in all programs by the MSU Police Department.

Engravers are made available for students, faculty, and staff to engrave valuable personal property. A crime alert program provides for residence hall notices to be posted in specific threats areas.

Voice and e-mail bulletin systems are used to make announcements to the University community as needed. Media releases to the campus population are made in coordination with the Office of Media Relations.

(b) How to report a crime:

The Morehead State University Police Department maintains a 24-hours a day, 7 days per week operation. Sworn police officers and state certified dispatchers are on duty to respond to any crime, suspected crime, or incident, requiring police attention. Emergency phones are available throughout the campus. The MSU Police Department actively participates in new student orientation programs to promote crime awareness and reporting.

If you are the victim of crime, suspect that a crime has been committed, or have witnessed a crime, report this to the MSU Police Department, 100 Laughlin Health Building, phone (606) 783-2035, or call 911.

(c) How to prevent crimes:

Unauthorized persons are not permitted in residence halls and should be reported to the residence hall staff or the MSU Police Department (783-2035). If you believe a crime has been or is about to be committed, contact the MSU Police Department immediately. Specific guest and visitation policies are contained in "The Eagle" handbook for students.

Campus safety and security surveys will be conducted twice annually (normally May and September). The Chief of Police with the Morehead State University Police Department and the Coordinator of Occupational Health and Safety, or their designated representatives, shall make a campus survey at night to determine lighting adequacy and needs. They will accomplish the survey on foot and make every effort to observe all possible routes used by the University community, including parking lots. A list of needs will be identified to the Vice President of Administration and Fiscal Services, the Director of Risk & Compliance, the Assistant Vice President of Facilities Management and the Vice President for Student Life.
