

Co-Teaching Training – Best Practice in Supporting a Student Teacher (Part B)

The Education Professional Standards Board (EPSB) requires all university supervisors to complete the Co-Teaching Training modules (created by Dr. Kim Sharp, Morehead State University) and assessments outlined in the instructions below:

Please note that there are two steps to complete your Co-Teaching Training certification:

1. Access and view the Co-Teaching Training Module by clicking here.

The links referenced in the training module may be accessed here:

- <http://www.lrc.ky.gov/kar/016/005/040.htm>
- <http://www.kyepsb.net/teacherprep/standards.asp>

2. After viewing the training module above, complete the certification form (via Survey Monkey) by clicking here.

Your Co-Teaching Training Certificate will be emailed to you. The information collected will be registered with EPSB and matched with your Kentucky 16 KAR 5:040 Regulation Training.
