

Health and Physical Requirements

This section is to be completed by the applicant's healthcare provider (licensed physician, physician's assistant, or nurse practitioner).

PHYSICAL CAPABILITIES
Vision Capabilities	Yes	No
Normal or corrected refraction within the range of 20/20 to 20/60
Able to distinguish color shade changes
Possess normal or corrected hearing ability within the 0-45 decibel range
Tactile Capabilities
Possess in at least one hand, the ability to perceive temperature change and pulsations
Possess in at least one hand, the ability to differentiate between various textures and structures
Recognize an object by touching and handling
Language Capability
Able to communicate verbally
Motor Capabilities Possess four functional limbs (natural or artificial) which allow the following actions:
Grasp securely with two functional upper limbs
Push and/or pull movable objects weighing 100-150 lbs
Lift at least 25 lbs. without assistance
Stand for long periods of time
Sit/stand and maintain balance
Walk without assistance of canes, crutches, walkers, and/or humans
Reach above shoulders and below waist
Twist, bend, stoop/squat, and move quickly
MENTAL HEALTH STATUS
Possess the ability to adapt to the environment, function in everyday activities, and cope with stressors		