

Morehead State University Drug and Alcohol-Free Workplace Statement

The unlawful possession, use, dispensation, distribution, or manufacture of alcohol or illicit drugs is prohibited on University property, on University business, and/or at University sponsored activities.

Sanctions, ranging from a minimum of warning to a maximum of termination from University employment will be taken against employees for violation of such prohibitions.

Sanctions for violations of state alcohol laws vary from a fine of $10 to $2000, a sentence of 48 hours to 12 months in jail, and/or suspension of one's drivers license.

I understand that, as a condition of my employment, I am required to:

- (1) abide by the terms of the above statement; and to
- (2) notify my supervisor of any criminal drug offense occurring in the workplace or while on University business within five days of the conviction.

I acknowledge receipt of this statement by my signature.
